

The Winning Balance®: Executive Retreat

Paradise Valley, Arizona
June 2-5, 2026

We are inviting a hand-selected group of 6–9 proven executives to our inaugural retreat. This is not generic leadership program. It is a high-impact deep dive where you will reclaim strategic clarity, identify personal leadership patterns and develop a framework for cultural and business success. Because this is a deliberate small pilot, every participant receives personalized attention and co-shapes the program in order to delivering immediate, measurable breakthroughs that you can deploy for transformational business impact and renewed purpose.

Tuesday afternoon:

Start of the session at 2pm

Wednesday: Energy, Purpose, Own
Challenge Immunity to Change

Thursday: Chemistry, self-management
classics and advanced science

Friday morning Building trust at scale
Noon: End of session

Key Outcomes:

- Proven systems from The Winning Balance to inspire ownership and accountability without burnout or heroics, driving consistent execution and cultural alignment.
- Crystal-clear vision for your current role and your next chapter, so you exit (or evolve) with energy, purpose, and a defined legacy.
- A confidential peer network of fellow elite leaders you can call on long after the retreat ends.
- Direct application of Dirk's transformation methodology (strategy, culture, turnaround expertise) plus Daryn's real-world C-suite battle-tested insights.

*Unlock Sustainable
High Performance,
Unbreakable Trust &
Cultural Excellence*

Dirk H. Horn is the founder and CEO of mab Partners, a boutique firm that has guided industrial, automotive, and food-industry clients through strategy, growth, turnarounds, and leadership transformation for decades. He is the author of The Winning Balance: Building Customer Trust at Scale and host of the podcast The Pitch and The Catch, where he explores leadership, risk, and purpose with top executives.

Daryn Walters is the former President of Exmark Manufacturing and a senior leader at The Toro Company. With deep operational expertise and a recent transition into "the real work" beyond the corporate role, Daryn brings grounded, battle-tested perspective on sustaining performance while redefining success.

